Artist Biography

Guitarist Yeram Yoon is an award-winning guitarist known for his diverse repertoire, fluent technique, and sensitive musicianship. He started playing the guitar at the age of 10 with eclectic influences ranging from blues, rock, R&B, jazz, and classical music.

Throughout his studies, he has garnered impressive accolades with over 16 competition prizes, multiple scholarships, and various performance invitations, making a name for himself as an up-and-coming guitarist of his generation. He was a two-time recipient of the Ablan Memorial Scholarship from the Cleveland Institute of Music which recognizes the “most promising guitarist” as well as the “most talented guitarist.” He has also made appearances at renowned venues such as the Cleveland Classical Guitar Society Showcase Concert and the Marlow Guitar International Series.

Yeram received his bachelor's degree at the Cleveland Institute of Music under the tutelage of Grammy award-winning guitarist Jason Vieaux. In the past, he has also studied with Brazilian guitarist Joao Paulo Figuieroa, L.A. session guitarist Tom Lawrence, American classical guitarist Colin Davin, jazz guitarist Don Better, and jazz guitarist Pete Billmann. He is currently pursuing his graduate degree with Cuban guitar virtuoso Rene Izquierdo at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Peck School of the Arts, where he is also serving as a graduate assistant with a full scholarship and stipend.

In addition to performing and teaching, Yeram is also an avid arranger for the guitar and enjoys adapting various kinds of works for the instrument ranging from popular tunes to piano transcriptions.

GRACE

LUTHERAN CHURCH

God's grace welcomes you, no matter who you are or where you come from—and so do we. We believe that Jesus Christ is the true Savior of all people. He saves all lost sinners even without our help.

Whether you are a seasoned Christian, a curious observer with little religious background, or a spiritual person looking to return to the church, we invite you to Grace.

Founded in 1849, Grace Church has been a vital part of downtown Milwaukee and the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod for over 170 years.
